

KUCHING

Rates quoted are not applicable during any identified international conferences or events. (Rates and dates are to be advised)

3D2N FREE & EASY

- Day 1 Upon arrival, you will be met and transfer to the hotel. Free at leisure after check-in.
- Day 2 Breakfast at the hotel. In the afternoon, proceed for halfday Kuching city tour. Kuching meaning "cat" in the Malay language is situated on both banks of the Sarawak River. It is also the Capital of Sarawak. This tour takes you across the Satok Bridge to cruise pass the State Mosque and a visit to the Cat Museum (closed on Mondays), view the Astana, the former residence of the White Rajahs, now the Governor's residence, the Court House, the Post Office, the Pavilion, the Square Tower, the Sarawak Museum and the Central Market. A stopover at the picturesque and colourful "Tua Pek Kong" Chinese Temple built in 1876.
- Day 3 After breakfast, free at leisure until your departure transfer to the airport.

3D2N CULTURAL PARADISE

- Day 1 You will be met upon arrival and proceed for halfday Kuching city tour. Kuching meaning "cat" in the Malay language is situated on both banks of the Sarawak River. It is also the Capital of Sarawak. This tour takes you across the Satok Bridge to cruise pass the State Mosque and a visit to the Cat Museum (closed on Mondays), view the Astana, the former residence of the White Rajahs, now the Governor's residence, the Court House, the Post Office, the Pavilion, the Square Tower, the Sarawak Museum and the Central Market. A stopover at the picturesque and colourful "Tua Pek Kong" Chinese Temple built in 1876. After the tour, transfer back to hotel for check-in.
- Day 2 After breakfast, visit Sarawak Cultural Village (Entrance fees included). Built on a 17-acre site, next to a scenic man-made lake, the village boasts seven ethnic houses representative of the Malay, the Chinese, the Penan and the longhouses of the Bidayuh, Iban, Orang Ulu and the Melanau. Authentically built and replete with traditional crafts, tools, utensils and artifacts the village has been dubbed as the "living museum" of Sarawak. Browse around the village and observe the inhabitants of the various houses display their skills in making traditional handicrafts such as beading, wood-carving, bamboo-carving, pua-weaving, etc. You can also view traditional methods of making sago, crushing sugar cane and how the Penans make blow-pipes and other hunting instruments. This tour includes a colourful cultural performance in a modern air-conditioned theatre. (Guest who staying in Damai Beach Resort/Damai Puri Resort & Spa are required to walk to and back from Sarawak Cultural Village. Entrance fees included)
- Day 3 After breakfast, free at leisure until your transfer to the airport.

4D3N NATURE PARADISE

- Day 1 You will be met upon arrival and proceed for halfday Kuching city tour. Kuching meaning "cat" in the Malay language is situated on both banks of the Sarawak River. It is also the Capital of Sarawak. This tour takes you across the Satok Bridge to cruise pass the State Mosque and a visit to the Cat Museum (closed on Mondays), view the Astana, the former residence of the White Rajahs, now the Governor's residence, the Court House, the Post Office, the Pavilion, the Square Tower, the Sarawak Museum and the Central Market. A stopover at the picturesque and colourful "Tua Pek Kong" Chinese Temple built in 1876. After the tour, transfer to hotel in Damai for check-in.
- Day 2 After breakfast, walk to Sarawak Cultural Village for visit (Entrance fees included). It built on a 17-acre site, next to a scenic man-made lake, the village boasts seven ethnic houses representative of the Malay, the Chinese, the Penan and the longhouses of the Bidayuh, Iban, Orang Ulu and the Melanau. Authentically built and replete with traditional crafts, tools, utensils and artifacts the village has been dubbed as the "living museum" of Sarawak. Browse around the village and observe the inhabitants of the various houses display their skills in making traditional handicrafts such as beading, wood-carving, bamboo-carving, pua-weaving, etc. You can also view traditional methods of making sago, crushing sugar cane and how the Penans make blow-pipes and other hunting instruments. This tour includes a colourful cultural performance in a modern air-conditioned theatre. Walk back to hotel after visit.
- Day 3 After breakfast, check-out from hotel and proceed for Irrawaddy Dolphin Watching. This cruise combines the Mangrove Cruise with a visit to the Santubong River mouth in search of the Irrawaddy dolphins. Dolphin watching may take place before or after the mangrove cruise, depending on tidal conditions. Dolphins wild creatures and therefore sightings cannot be guaranteed, although we usually enjoy a high success rate. Lunch at the local restaurant. Then, visit the Semenggok Wildlife Centre. The best place in Sarawak to view semi-wild orang utans, who have been rescued from captivity and trained to survive in the surrounding forest reserve. The rehabilitated animals roam freely in the rain forest, and often return to the centre at feeding time. Thanks to the successful breeding programme at Semenggok there is a good possibility of experiencing one of the most heart-warming sights in Borneo – an orang utan mother with a young baby. The centre is 30 mins drive from Kuching and another 20 mins on foot. Feeding times at the centre at 0830hrs and 1500hrs. Transfer to city hotel for check-in and free at leisure.
- Day 4 After breakfast, free at leisure until your transfer to the airport.

Notes: All the tours and transfer are on seat-in-coach basis. Please bring sun block lotion, hat and good walking shoes. For tour in Sarawak Cultural Village, guest staying in Damai will have to walk over to the village from the resort, no guide provided.

HOTELS
DAMAI BEACH RESORT	(4*)
GRAND MARGHERITA	(3*) Formerly known as Holiday Inn Kuching
HILTON	(5*)
PULLMAN	(5*)
RIVERSIDE MAJESTIC	(5*) Formerly known as Crowne Plaza Riverside